

International Rail Infrastructure Conference
IRIC 2012

Be IN¹²
INfrastructure
INteroperability
INformatics

International Rail Infrastructure Conference

On 5-6 November 2012 in Bratislava, in the NH Gate One Hotel, 4th year of the international technical conference IRIC 2012 for the railway infrastructure takes place, this time with the bearing topics: "Efficient infrastructure management - a key prerequisite for the railway undertakings (RUs) to operate on the market".

Book in your diary now!

- Top experts from railway IMs and RUs, as well as from the international bodies
- Sights of railway in the European context
- Modern technologies for future of the efficient sustainable transport
- Two-days programme - both technical sessions and lively discussions
- Exhibition of technologies, products and services for efficient infrastructure
- Unique opportunity for personal contacts
- Conference languages: English, Czech (with translation)
- Accompanying and social programme

Programme committee:

- Štefan Mestický, OLTIS Group
- Ján Juriga, ŽSR
- Michael Bares, ÖBB Infrastruktur
- Marek Neustadt, SŽDC
- Jiří Černý, SŽDC
- Jiří Janšta, OLTIS Group
- David Krásenský, OLTIS Group
- Stane Božičnik, University of Maribor
- Andreas Schöbel, TU Wien
- Antonín Felber, UniControls
- Ladislav Kovář, STARMON
- Tatiana Molková, University of Pardubice

Conference Topics:

- Efficient development of the European railway network
- Information and communication technology as a tool to boost efficiency of a railway organisation
- Traction energy - a significant source of cost and savings for the railway transport
- Intelligent railways - innovative solutions for the future of the rail infrastructure

The 2nd year of the conference has been awarded within the Yearly Award ACRI 2010 (Association of the Czech Railway Industry). Complete programme of the 3rd year with press release and photo gallery can be found at <http://www.railconference.com/iric-2011/en/>.

The conference is organised by the company OLTIS Slovakia and the OLTIS Group. Further information may be obtained at the site <http://www.railconference.com/iric-2012/en/>, or by e-mail to the address of iric@oltisgroup.cz.

